I now call upon head of the department of clinical medicine to administer the Hippocratic oath

I head of the Department Clinical Medicine

HIPPOCRATIC OATH

I swear by the Almighty God and all the congregation here as my witnesses, that, according to my ability and judgment, I will keep this Oath and this contract.

To hold him who taught me this art equally dear to me as my parents, to be a partner in life with him, and to fulfill his needs when required; to look upon his offspring as equal to my own siblings, and to teach them this art, if they shall wish to learn it, without fee or contact; and that by the set rules, lectures, and every other mode of instruction, I will impart a knowledge of the art to my own sons, and those of my teachers, and to students bound by this contract and having sworn this Oath to the law of medicine, but to no others.

I will use those dietary regimens which will benefit my patients according to my greatest ability and judgment, and I will do no harm or injustice to them.

I will not give a lethal drug to anyone if I am asked, nor will I advise such a plan; and similarly I will not give any patient a drug that shall cause harm.

In purity and according to divine law will I carry out my life and my art.

I will not use the knife unnecessarily without supportive justification, but I will consult with those who are trained in this craft of surgery. Into whatever homes I go, I will enter them for the benefit of the sick, avoiding any voluntary act of impropriety or corruption, including the seduction of women or men, whether they are free men or slaves.

Whatever I see or hear in the lives of my patients, whether in connection with my professional practice or not, which ought not to be spoken of outside, I will keep secret, as considering such things to be private. So long as I maintain this Oath faithfully and without corruption, may it be granted to me to partake of life fully and the practice of my art, gaining the respect of all men for all time. However, should I transgress this Oath and violate it, may the opposite be my fate.

So help me God.

GRADUATION SONGS

OPENING HYMN:

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word;
From heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride,

With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation,
to one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses
With every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppressed,
Schisms rent asunder,
Heresies distressed,

Saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, 'How long?'
Till soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

Till toil, and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
Shall wait the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blessed,
Till the great church victorious
Shall be the church at rest.

And on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Pray, I, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly,
In peace may dwell with Thee.
